

Majority Voting Policy of Intermap Technologies Corporation (the "Corporation")

The board of directors of the Corporation (the "Board") believes that each director should have the confidence and support of the shareholders of the Corporation. To this end, the Board has unanimously adopted this policy and future nominees for election to the Board will be required to confirm that they will abide by this policy.

Forms of proxy for the election of directors will permit a shareholder to vote in favour of, or to withhold from voting, separately for each director nominee. The Chair of the Board will ensure that the number of shares voted in favour or withheld from voting for each director nominee is recorded and promptly made public after the shareholders' meeting. If the vote was by a show of hands, the Corporation will disclose the number of shares voted by the proxies in favour or withheld for each director.

If a director nominee has more votes withheld than are voted in favour of him or her, the nominee will be considered by the Board not to have received the support of the shareholders, even though duly elected under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) (the "Act"). Such a nominee will be expected to forthwith submit his or her resignation to the Board, effective on acceptance by the Board. The Board will refer the resignation to the Nominating and Governance Committee (the "Committee") of the Corporation for consideration. A director nominee who is required to submit his or her resignation to the Board pursuant to this policy will not participate in any meetings or other deliberations of the Board or the Committee at which his or her resignation is to be considered.

The Board will promptly accept the resignation unless the Committee determines that there are extraordinary circumstances relating to the composition of the Board or the voting results that should delay the acceptance of the resignation or justify rejecting it. In any event, it is expected that the resignation will be accepted (or in rare cases rejected) within 90 days of the shareholders' meeting. The Corporation will issue a press release announcing whether the resignation has been accepted or rejected as soon as possible after the Board has made its decision.

Subject to any restrictions in the Act, the Board may (1) leave a vacancy in the Board unfilled until the next annual general meeting, (2) fill the vacancy by appointing a new director whom the Board considers to merit the confidence of the shareholders, or (3) call a special meeting of shareholders to consider new Board nominees(s) to fill the vacant position(s).

This policy does not apply where an election of directors involves a proxy battle i.e., where proxy material is circulated in support of one or more nominees who are not part of the director nominees supported by the Board.
